Antioch High rebuilding its strapped coaching staff

by GLORIA DAVIS

Last spring Antioch High School lost six of its coaches, now some of them have been replaced as the school bells get set to start ringing.

At its last regular meeting, the Board of Education of ACHS approved the hiring of Cynthia Martin as head girls' basketball coach. She will be teaching drivers education and physical education.

Deborah Ramsey will serve as head gymnastics coach. While Art Blecke, principal, is busy interviewing for the other open coaching positions, the board also appointed many assistant coaches.

Diane Otten will serve as assistant to the gymnastics and track coaches. Steve Owens will be assistant boys' soccer and Charlene Schmerbauch will be assistant girls' tennis coach.

Patti Thelen will assist the boys' tennis coach, the volleyball coach and the girls' basketball coach and Brad Smith is slated to be the assistant wrestling coach.

Elizabeth Lehn will be running the concession stand and Marie Gedville will be sponsor of football cheerleaders.

Dist. 34 OK's budget hike

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Board of Education of Antioch Grade school Dist. 34 has approved the tentative budget for the 1988-89 school year (made without assessed valuation) that shows a 5.44 percent hike over last year.

The $5,460,000 budget is up from the $5,178,000 budget of the 1987-88 school year. If the budget is approved by district electors, the tax rate will rise from 2.575 to 2.60.

According to Supt. Donald Skidmore, though the total budget shows a hike of just over 5 percent, there is over an 8 percent increase in this year's educational fund as a result of the 7 percent raises given to district teachers and staff and the hiring of two full time teachers.

The board is implementing a new program which has a full-time teacher for a class of students who can not function academically in the regular classrooms.

In other business the board:

— heard a report that summer school went well and approved summer school for next year.

— approved the continuation of the Teen Canteen to be held again at the Upper Grade on at least 30 Fridays for grades six through eighth.

— instructed Kathy Oddsen, SEDOL representative, to not approve the new SEDOL budget that would increase the district's cost from $155,999 to $195,786. Oddsen's was the only dissenting vote.

Wilton joins Toft in Antioch's mayoral ring

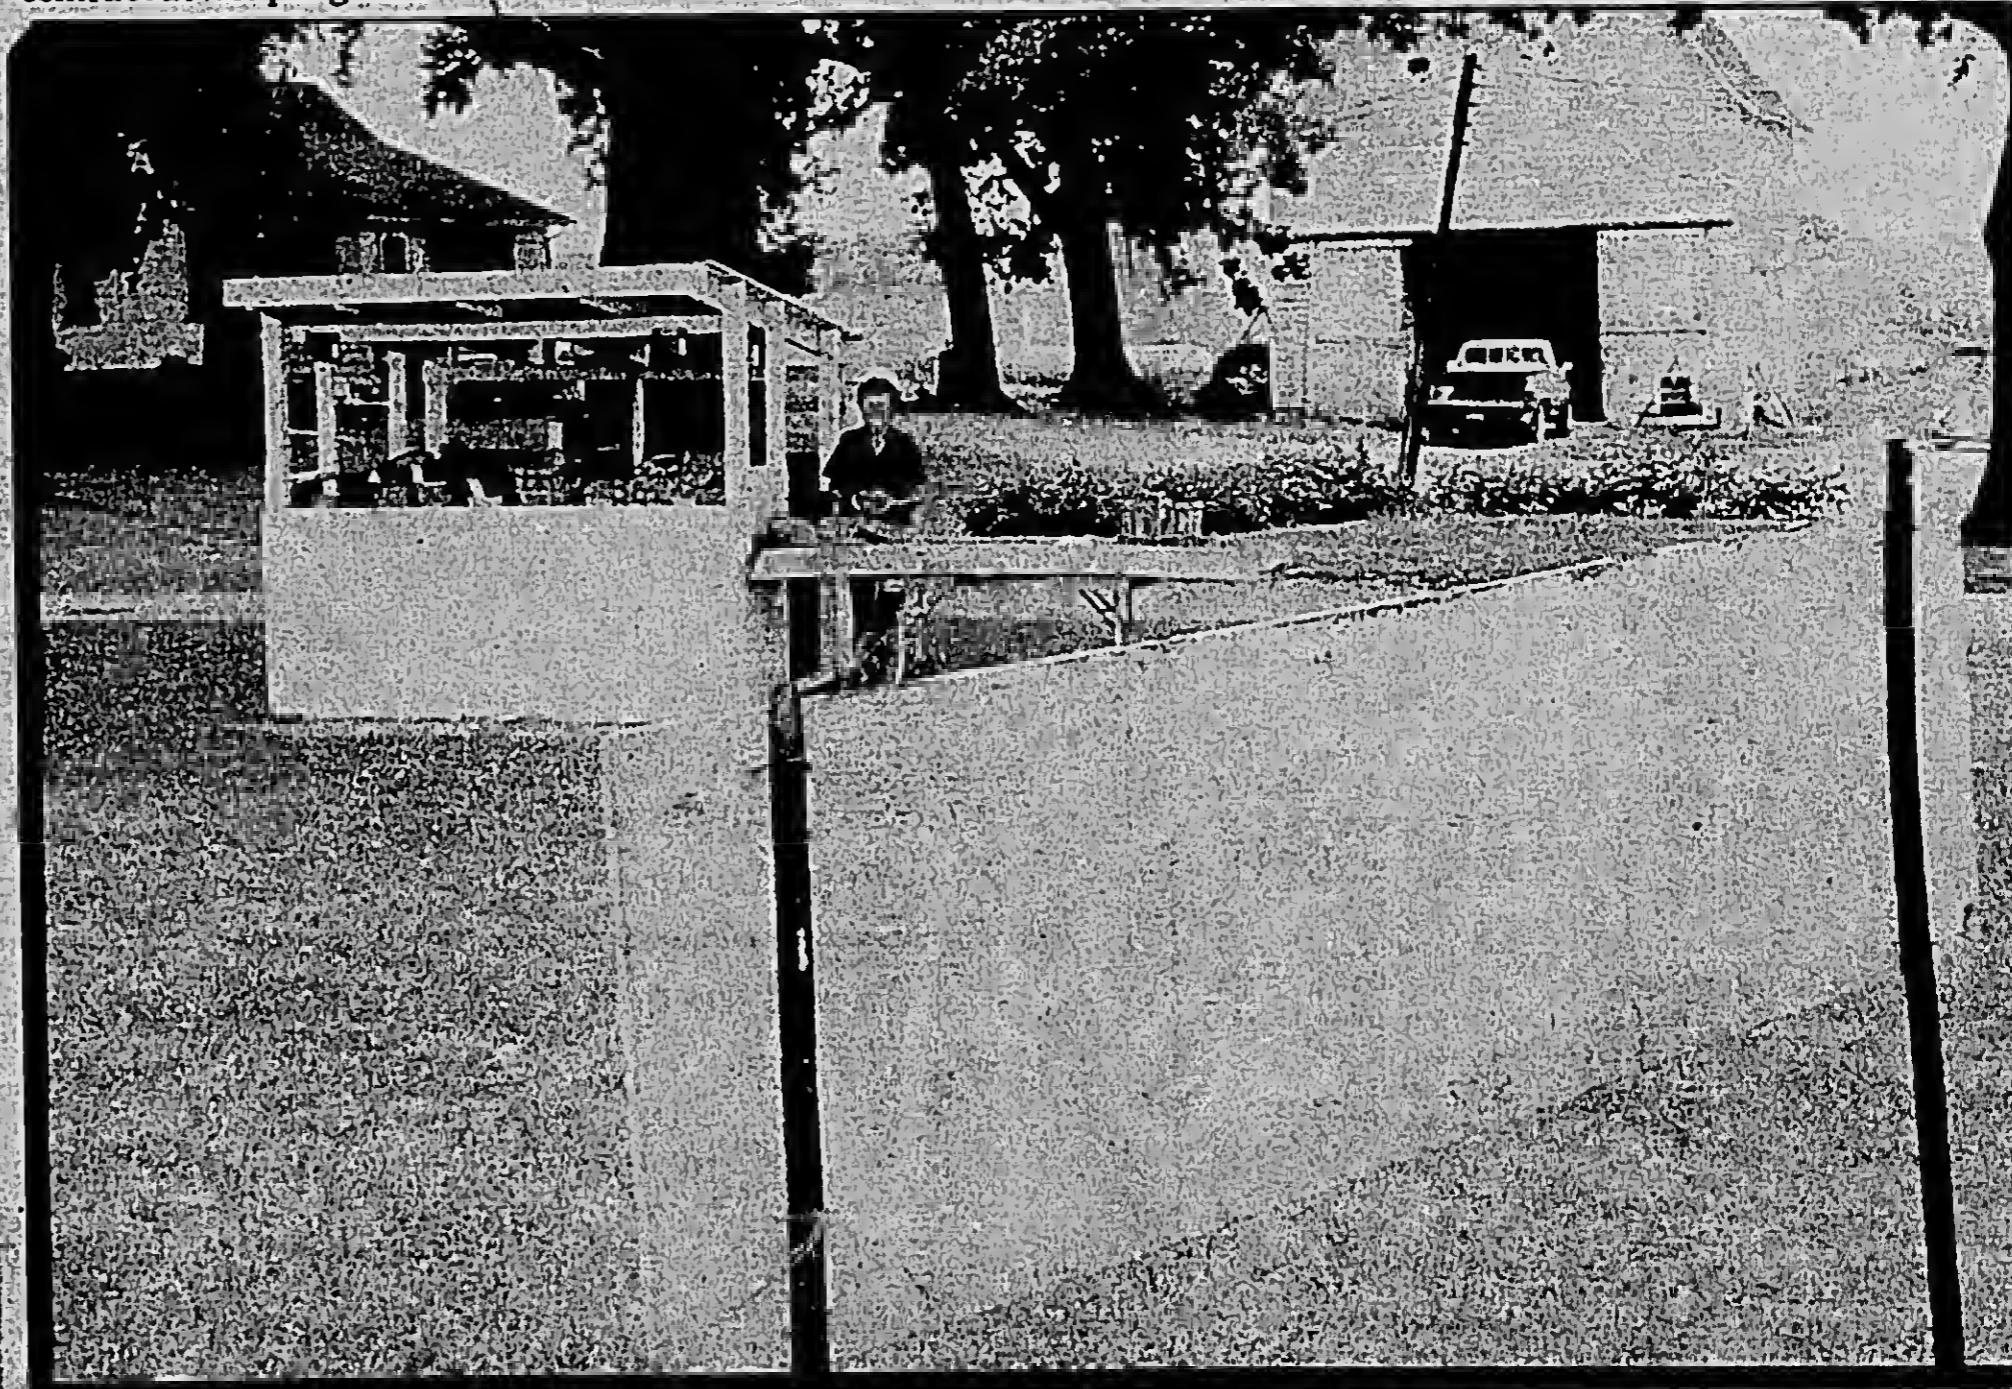

A second candidate for mayor of Antioch has made the announcement that he will be running for that post in the spring election, present trustee and former mayor, Robert Wilton.

"I've decided to run for mayor because I care about our community and I care about the people that live here," said Wilton, adding, "I'm also concerned about future problems of the village."

Wilton, whose family was among the early settlers of Antioch, is the owner of Pizza Plus. His family owned Wilton Electric on Main St. for many years.

He has served as a trustee on the village board from 1963 to 73 and was elected mayor in 1973. He resigned shortly before his term as mayor expired because he moved out of the village in 1977.

He moved back and ran unsuccessfully for mayor in 1981.

Roadside stands beckon fall

When roadside stands open for business, counters laden with fresh fruit and vegetables, that's signal fall can't be far away. Typifying harvest season is Jane Knall, 29855 N. Gilmer Rd., who's operated farm stand produce business for 20 years. Despite fact that not all produce is locally grown, roadside businesses have irresistible appeal. Open air exposure seems to make products taste better.—Photo by John Doetsch.

Lakeland COUNTY NEWS

Cub breaks ground

ROUND LAKE — Construction is starting this week on the Cub Food Store to be located at Fairfield Road and Rte. 134. The village of Round Lake anticipates the Cub store will draw others to the proposed Lake Lure, 880-acre shopping center. Grocer and Gurnee Mayor Dick Welton is bringing the store to Round Lake, which is the third such Welton enterprise in Lake County.

Plan new substation

LAKE ZURICH — Plans for a new and larger substation at Gilmer Rd. and the E.J. & E. railroad tracks have been unveiled by Commonwealth Edison Co. to compensate for low-voltage problems and power outages experienced this summer. It will be operational and will "meet any loads that develop in the future" a company spokesman said. The utility said record electrical demands of this summer, growth of the community, more customers adding air conditioners and, even, loads created by a village water well have caused the brownouts and blackouts.

Development planned

FOX LAKE — Two groups presented plans to the village board for development along Grass Lake Rd. near Leisure Village. The board approved the concept of each and voted to have the process move on to the staff site review committee.

Taxpayer rebellion

LINDENHURST — Standing room only residents concerned about tax bills upwards of $1,000 more than they were told when buying their $125,000-plus homes this week heard township Assessor Mike Karasinski explain this is due to upwards of 20 different taxing bodies, including eight school districts, and his use of "neighborhood factor" to value homes differently in various sections of village. A similar turnout one week earlier for first budget and tax levy of newly-formed park district led to adjournment until Tuesday, Sept. 6.

Bank is robbed

MUNDELEIN — An alleged armed robber held up the First Midwest Bank of Lake County after handing the teller a note demanding money, then escaped on foot, according to police. The suspect was still at large at the time the Mundelein News went to press.

Eyes consolidation

NORTH CHICAGO — North Chicago Community High School Board of Education members received a report on the possibility of consolidating with Dist. 64 at the last meeting. David Scott of the Illinois Assn. of School Boards explained the advantages and disadvantages that consolidation could bring. Scott told the board that the North Chicago school systems are unique in that the boundaries are exactly the same. Scott said the advantages of consolidation would be more for educational purposes than use of facilities.

Dome in future?

PARK CITY — Detroit may have its Silverdome. Seattle may have its Kingdome and Houston may have its Astrodome.

But some day soon, Lake County may be able to add its name to the list - with a domed stadium in Park City. Kaiser's Development Corp. has made a presentation for a domed roof over All-Stars Bar & Grill in Park City before the Park City Zoning Board of Appeals. No firm action was taken because the city is in the process of rewriting its commercial zoning laws for east of Rte. 41.

Installs Holt

NORTH CHICAGO — A triple installation of officers took place at the Sharvin American Legion Home earlier this month. Norman Holt was installed as commander.

Budget deficit

FOX LAKE — The Grant Community High School budget is written in red ink this year—for the second time in a row. District leaders are blaming increases in salaries and fringe benefits with concurrent cuts in state aids.

Police short on bosses

ANTIOCH — With the Antioch Village Board hoping to hear if Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller has doctors' permission to return this week, news has been revealed that Lt. Tom Fisher, who has been running the department since Miller went on sick leave in February, will be going into the hospital to have an injury suffered in a scuffle at the Antioch Firemen's dance two years ago, corrected.

Learning goes on

FOX LAKE — Students at Grant Community High School are starting to believe it when they hear that education is important as a life-long process. Since 1985, when Supt. Don Klusendorf took the helm, the percentage of graduates continuing their education has grown from 20 to 72 percent. The emphasis on education has caused the National Honor Society to be recognized as "the most prestigious" group in school.

Administrator debated

LAKE VILLA — Need for a village administrator has been suggested again by some trustees. Mayor Joyce Frayer said only three village employees would fall under the direct supervision of the administrator. The rest, all appointed or elected officials, are adults doing a perfectly capable job, she said. "What we need is either more employees," Frayer said, "trustees to get off their rear ends and see what is happening in the village or, even, come to meetings."

Bomb scare solved

GURNEE — A Harvey visitor to Great America faces two charges following a bomb scare last week. Gurnee Police Chief Larry Dluhos said Joseph R. Sproles, 23, was charged with disorderly conduct and reckless conduct following the Aug. 17 incident. Dluhos said Sproles told Great America security that he had locked his keys in his car and asked for assistance. Sproles said he had a bomb in his car so if someone tried to steal it, it would blow up. Police later described the story.

Concept house seen

LIBERTYVILLE — Concept House V, a model home that is a package of the best and most innovative ideas the housing industry has to offer, held an open house last week. Among the concepts demonstrated are wooden foundations and flexible copper tubing which bends to limit the need for pipe joints.

ACHS OK's coaches

ANTIOCH — Antioch High School has been busy replacing the part of its coaching staff that was strapped last spring when six coaches resigned. Cynthia Martin will be the new head girls' basketball coach; Deborah Ramsey, the head gymnastics coach. Many new assistant coaches were appointed by the board of education: Diane Otten assistant girls' track and assistant gymnastics coach; Steve Owens, assistant boys' soccer coach; Charlene Schmerbach, assistant girls' tennis coach; Brad Smith, assistant wrestling coach and Patti Thelen, assistant coach for boys' tennis, volleyball and girls' basketball.

Mayor rebukes trustee

GRAYSLAKE — Grayslake Trustee Russell Christian experienced a mild rebuke when he made a motion at cross purposes with Grayslake Mayor Edwin Schroeder that died for lack of a second. Rather than rush through adoption of the 1988-89 tax levy ordinance, the mayor recommended that Grayslake take advantage of a new state law permitting municipalities three additional months before the tax levy is required.

Library forms Friends group

Persons interested in forming a Friends of the Lake Villa District Library will meet Wednesday, Sept. 7, at the library, 1001 E. Grand Ave. The 7:30 p.m. meeting will be in the Wilton Room of the library.

This will be the second meeting of the newly-organized group. Library Director Barbara Elmore called a meeting last spring to reorganize the group after it had been dormant for nearly 10 years.

Senior airman
Michael L. Taylor, son of Gary R. Taylor of Cambridge, Ohio, and Louise Stanfield of 2014 Woodlane Dr., Lindenhurst, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior airman.

Those attending that meeting learned how Friends of the Library can benefit the community. Projects include an outreach program for schools, the elderly and homebound; sponsor of cultural programs for children and adults; raise funds; develop a plan for an outdoor nature area at the library; and help pass a referendum planned for next spring. The library board has voted to seek a tax increase from the current .0022 of $1,000 assessed valuation to .0049. The current rate has been in effect since 1979. The full, allowable tax rate of .0022 is being levied for the first time this year.

An election of officers will also be conducted at the meeting. For added information, call Elmore at the library (312) 356-7711.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

FROM THE OFFICE OF
DR. PAUL ABLER

FOOT JOINT PAIN

The pain in foot joints that brings someone to the podiatrist may be an early sign of arthritis.

There are many types of arthritis, some more severe than others, which damage the body's joints. Widespread among the elderly, arthritis can strike at younger ages.

Some people first notice occasional pain in foot joints and, hoping it will go away, put off professional examination. Yet early diagnosis can utilize procedures to reduce pain and maintain mobility. The podiatrist may prescribe medication, physical therapy, orthotic inserts in shoes or other devices to help the foot perform as nearly normal as possible. Some cases may require surgery.

The podiatrist maintains a close working relationship with other healthcare professionals in treating a patient with arthritis.

Kamera Kwestions

QUESTION: How are plans going for the start of school?

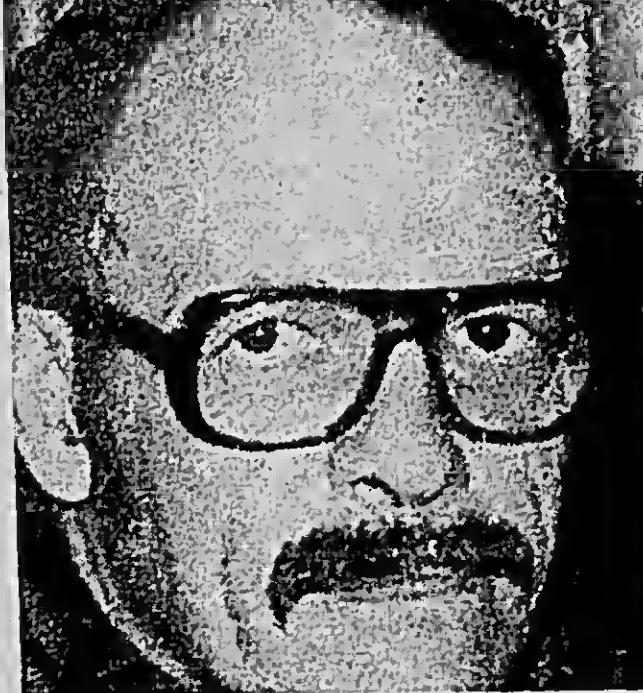

DR. DONALD SKIDMORE, Dist. 34, "Because of district revamping we've had to resize chairs, telescope desks to different sizes and change K-5 transportation routes but otherwise we're in good shape. The enrollment numbers are as expected so far."

AMY O'CONNOR, ACHS sophomore, "I'm anxious to get back to school and see the friends I haven't seen all summer, but as far as the classes go, I prefer summer vacation. But it will be nice to be a sophomore this year instead of being a lowly freshman."

DAVID WARREN, fifth grade at W.C. Petty, "I'm going to Petty School this year instead of the Lower Grade like I was supposed to because of the school changes. I'm really not that anxious because no matter how hard I try, I end up in detention all the time."

ART BLECKE, principal ACHS, "We're on schedule so far, I've been busy interviewing for a replacement of a teacher that just resigned, substitute teachers and some of the coaching jobs still unfilled. Overseeing the registration process has been another busy part of my job."

Carney calls for installing smoke detectors

Effective on the first day of July of this year, 1988, it became law in the State of Illinois that all residential living units must have a smoke detector.

The law stipulates that a fine can be levied if there is a fire and no smoke detector is found, and to be in working order. This law was a long time in coming and is being heralded by all fire departments as a significant achievement in saving lives from fire.

Smoke alarms save lives and property, states Chief Carney of the Antioch Fire Dept. Early warning is one of the most important elements in surviving a fire. Chief Carney states that highly reliable, solid state design smoke detectors that provide the warning one needs to take early action to protect their home and family from the ravages of fire are readily available from almost every store.

The chief states that the new law requires every single family residence to have at least one approved smoke detector installed on every story of the dwelling unit, including basements, but not including unoccupied attics.

The smoke detectors shall be installed within 15 feet of every room used for sleeping purposes. They shall be installed on the ceiling and at least six inches from any wall, or on a wall located between four and six inches from the ceiling.

The new regulation further states that it shall be the responsibility of the owner of a structure to supply and install all required detectors. It will be the tenants' responsibility to replace any required batteries to ensure continued proper operation.

Chief Carney further states that the law goes into more detail on maintenance, requirements for multifamily, and violations. He further recommends the use of smoke detectors at the top of all staircases, in garages, in the kitchen and wherever hazards may exist.

To accompany the smoke detector, one should have a fire extinguisher in the home, car, boat and RV.

The most common type to be used is an ABC type extinguisher. This type is good for wood, paper, rubber, fabric and plastics, flammable liquids (such as gasoline, paint, solvents, etc.) and electric fires.

If the home is more than one story or if one lives above the ground level, one may want to give some thought to using a life ladder. This procedure is suggested in the commonly known and widely used program called E.D.I.T.H. (exit drills in the home). It is highly suggested that everyone have more than one exit from their room and home.

Chief Carney wants to remind everyone that fire safety is the responsibility of the individual. But, he also reminds you that helpful information is available from the Antioch Fire Dept.

Award 8 Boy Scouts with 38 merit badges

Antioch's Boy Scouts of America Troop 92 enjoyed two weeks of fun and learning at Camp Owasippe, Mich. The camp, one of America's largest Scout reservations, is located 15 miles north of Muskegon, near Whitehall. Camp Owasippe provides a wealth of opportunities for Scouts to acquire knowledge and skills in the outdoors, obtain team and individual leadership experience, and have lots of fun.

Troop 92's eight scouts collectively earned 38 merit badges in such subjects as camping, cooking, pioneering, signaling, life saving, nature, soil and water, hiking, and woodcarving.

Other events the boys participated in included sailing, canoe racing, and a 22-mile troop canoe trip down the White River. Scouts Gene Brown and John Harting completed both the mile swim and the channel swim, a two-and-one-half mile event.

Each week Troop 92 won the Baden Powell Award for improving and maintaining their campsite. On one hot Sunday the Scouts were treated with a trip to the Pleasure Island Water Park near Muskegon.

Among the boys who attended were: Gene Brown, John Harting, Brian Paschke, Danny Ravens, Dave Stachel, John Thelen, Matt Vandrush, and Dan Weston. Paschke was senior patrol leader for the first week and Weston for the second week. The first week adult leaders included Assist. Scoutmaster Bernie Dost and Jim Ratajczyk. Assist. Scoutmaster Bob Brown and Scoutmaster Dick Weston took charge during the second week.

Other members of Troop 92 who assisted with the driving included Ray Harting, Mary Ann Hettich, Kent Ravens, John Thelen, and Nancy Zeien. The troop was able to earn their way to summer camp by selling meat raffle tickets during the spring.

Troop 92 is sponsored by Antioch's Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 525, and it holds its meetings at the Antioch Scout House on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. Anyone who is interested in joining Troop 92 is invited to attend a meeting or call Scoutmaster Weston at (312) 356-9269.

T-Ball season windup will be best show around

by CAROLYN HAMMOND
(312)395-6081

Well, our college freshmen are midway through what will seem to be the longest two weeks of their lives: the time they have to remain away at school before they can come home for the Labor Day weekend (if they're lucky to be best free show in town on Sunday, Aug. 28. The boys and girls playing T-Ball will wind up their season at Little League Field with games at 1, 2 and 3 p.m.

Each game will last about an hour. Each team will be introduced and will be coached by this past season's Little League managers. Each president/umpires; John Jedcle, vice president/fields; Joan Giza, vice president/concessions and Wayne Rey, secretary.

Antioch Youth Baseball is also in the process of lining up managers and coaches for the 1989 season at all levels. They would like to have all positions filled by Jan. 15, 1989. Anyone interested in being a coach or a manager can contact Roger Giza at (312)395-7976.

The boys and girls of Antioch's Viking Football program are within two weeks of their first games and are hoping for a good season and for less heat. The temperatures at their evening practices have been near the 90-degree mark.

Just think how glad they'll be when the temperature drops down to almost freezing, as it can by late October. Then a little of this heat would be welcome. Too bad we can't wait.

Mothers, can you wait? School bells ring on Monday, Aug. 29, for School Dists. 33 and 34 and for ACHS freshmen. The lucky sophomores, juniors and seniors don't begin until Aug. 30.

Until then, keep cool!

Letter To The Editor

Copy of letter to mayor

Editor:

I was quite interested to see that you had provided the Lakeland Newspapers with a copy of your attorney's letter to me, and even more interested to see that you were proposing that I had dismissed the lawsuit I brought against you because of the content of that letter. Since you made that letter public, I am providing copies of this letter to the press as well.

I will be happy to set the record straight. First and foremost, at no time have I ever considered my lawsuit "frivolous". Second, I fully believe that my suit accomplished its goals. Third, the mailing costs of the letter endorsing Fields and Popp were not actually billed by Biller Press until well after the suit was on file and your actions were subject to public scrutiny.

Fourth, you have never yet accounted to the public for your use of the village secretarial staff in the writing of the partisan letter. Fifth, you have never explained how you have the right to use village resources, supported by my tax dollars, to support any politician.

The basic wrong that you committed with the authoring and authorizing of the letter has never been made public, as such. Your letter appeared on official-appearing stationery, referencing your position as mayor of Antioch, gave no return address other than "Antioch, Illinois", and gave every facial appearance of being an official endorsement from the village, through you.

As the facts have developed, in your affidavits, you were away on one of your extended Florida vacations at the time that the letter was printed. You have placed all the blame on Biller Press for an "inadvertent use" of the village's bulk mailing permit for mailing the letters.

You have never accounted for the fact that the letter did not bear any explanatory language that showed who had paid for the letter and its distribution. This fact alone demonstrates a clear violation of the election laws, and it is the truly critical factor that convinced me to file the suit in the first place. Surely you cannot blame Mr. Biller for this as well.

Had your letter simply stated words to the effect that it was paid for by you in your individual capacity, or was a paid political statement authorized by citizens for Fields and Popp, I might not have considered it to have been as objectionable as it was.

Absent any indication of its partisan genesis, it bore the stamp of official sanction, and it is that which I found, and continue to find, highly objectionable. You, as the mayor of our village, certainly have the right to endorse candidates, make no mistake about it, but you have absolutely no right to give anyone the impression that the village endorses anyone or that your endorsement carries the approval of the village, its board or its citizens and taxpayers.

Mr. Toft, my lawsuit accomplished its goals. It was able to counteract some of the influence your improper letter may have created in the election itself, as Fred Popp lost his seat. It ensured that the village would certainly not be charged for the mailing by the printer. It has ensured that you and the other political figures in surrounding communities will not make the same mistakes again.

I can only hope that you have learned that you should not use the village secretarial staff to write your letters for you, and that reliance upon others to accomplish your goals from Florida is inviting danger.

As to your assertion that I was somehow convinced that I would be sanctioned for filing a frivolous lawsuit, you should read the precise language of the statute your attorney cited but did not quote from. The language reads in relevant part:

"The signature of an attorney or party constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading, motion or other paper; that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry it is well grounded in fact..."

The facts recited in my complaint were absolutely true at the time the complaint was filed. You later paid the bill for the mailing, it is true, but if sanctions are to be imposed, the court must look to the facts as they existed at the time the papers were filed, and not at some time thereafter.

Neither I, nor any other litigant, is required to wait for all harm to occur. I cannot imagine any judge granting sanctions against me for seeking to protect the interests of the village and its citizens.

No, Mr. Toft, I had accomplished what I had set out to do, and further beating of the issue would not have done more. As such, the time had come to dismiss the case.

Incidentally, since you had originally hired the village attorney to defend you until I had him disqualified for a clear conflict of interest, I have been wondering if he actually charged you for the services, or if we will end up paying for him somewhere down the line. Perhaps you would like to set the record straight on this point.

I trust that this letter clarifies any misconceptions you might have developed over my decision to end the lawsuit. You did not win the case. I did not win the case. The citizens and taxpayers of the Village of Antioch won the case.

Donated machines will detect prisoner drug use

Abbott Laboratories donated two state-of-the-art drug detector systems to the Lake County Sheriff to be used for screening prisoners in the county jail and work-release program.

Known as the AEx, the machines perform 11 different tests to detect the presence of a wide range of drugs in urine samples. Thomas Brown, an Abbott vice president, said the board has machines to do the tests through an automated procedure that minimizes operator handling and reduces the chance of error.

Marquette dean's list honors scholars

Marquette University has announced the names of students who qualified for the dean's list for the fall, 1987 and/or spring 1988 semesters.

From Antioch, Konstantina K. Diamantopoulos, 554 Maplewood Drive, and Eric J. Grover, 123 Winsor Drive, are both in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Hemenski, 1912 Carriage Drive, College of Business Administration; Joy M. Kilmer, 414 South Essex, College of Arts and Sciences; Bridget J. Nasseur, 37103 N. Grandwood Drive, College of Journalism.

The machines can test for marijuana, cocaine, barbiturates, opiates, PCP, amphetamines and other drugs using individual or multiple samples. In addition to donating the machines, Abbott will train employees of the sheriff's office in their operation, Brown said.

Sheriff Clinton Grinnell said eventually there will be six deputies trained to operate the machines, which will be used to screen prisoners in the work release program.

The following students from Glenview were named on the list: Terry M. Beggar, 1021 Chestnut Circle, College of Arts and Sciences; Robert J. Wolff, 2001 E. Greenleaf Lane, College of Arts and Sciences; Veronica M. Wolff, 2001 E. Greenleaf Lane, College of Arts and Sciences.

United under-way

United Way of Lake County formally celebrated the groundbreaking of the new facility that should be completed in December. Off Buckley and O'Plaine Roads, remodeled Oak Grove school house has 6,000 square-feet, one-third more than the office currently demands. Here, Jan Edgar, the new executive director and Jeff Tallent, the outgoing executive director, chat during the open house preceding a speech by Ray Kerr, president of United Way.—Photo by Randi Ostro

Media oversteps in Quayle bashing

Certain elements of the American press are having a field day with continued slashing at Republican vice presidential candidate Dan Quayle with questions about his military and academic background. We feel strongly that the questions are legitimate. When a person presents qualifications for high office, life becomes an open book. Voters are entitled to be privy to and to have the opportunity to scrutinize even the most minute details of the background of a person to which grave responsibility might be given.

At what point, though, does honest and legitimate inquiry on the part of the press turn from responsible journalism into irresponsible witch hunting? The answer to that question, in large part, depends on individual prejudices.

Without a doubt, most Republicans already have heard enough about Quayle's National Guard years and his college grades, while highly partisan Democrats are rubbing their hands in anticipation of more to come. We would like to suggest, however, that a vast majority of fair-minded Americans have heard quite enough, and that further Quayle bashing on the part of the press is going to produce counterproductive results, far removed from Quayle's qualifications and fitness for one of the highest offices of the land.

Ever since Vice President Bush announced his running mate, the liberal bias of network commentators and big city reporters has been painfully obvious. Bullying tactics are turning off Americans and do a disservice to the press as a whole. By inference, the liberal inquisitors seem to be suggesting that frontline combat military experience is a prerequisite for high office. Everyone we've pressed that question to has responded—"ridiculous." National Guard personnel across the land are smarting over their branch of service being held up to disrepute by the media. Big city journalistic smarties might not realize that serving in the Guard is honorable in small towns across the land. The liberal press is courting a backlash that won't fully be realized until election day.

Above all, we're concerned that media zealots have overstepped the bounds of objective journalism and have recklessly adopted the mantle of both judge and jury. We deeply resent that strategy. In the long run, the American system suffers when the media oversteps its rightful role.

OFF THE WALL

IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED, REMEMBER, THERE'S ROOM AT THE BOTTOM

Four year opportunity

Opportunities for obtaining a higher education locally are getting better all the time. This fall, Roosevelt University, a distinguished, independent, urban university will offer 18 graduate and undergraduate courses in business, education, liberal arts and adult education at its Lake County campus located at Stevenson High School on Rte. 22.

The Chicago institution is beginning its fourth semester of local classes. The campus at Prairie View is another effort on Roosevelt's part to reach out to where potential students live. The Michigan Ave. school operates three campuses and five colleges.

In Lake County, Roosevelt is stressing partnership opportunities with business, going directly to corporations to make known course offerings in both general studies and business, such as the MBA program in management.

Older students will feel comfortable in the classes at Stevenson. The median student age at the Lake County campus is 30. Another plus for county residents is an agreement with College of Lake County to enter transfer students with an associates degree in management to obtain advanced degrees all at Stevenson. The combination of the two schools makes for exciting educational opportunities.

Roosevelt is to be congratulated on its programs geared for Lake County residents. We wish Roosevelt well.

Wanted: public input

If ever there was an opportunity for individual citizen input to influence a course of public action, it is in connection with reaching a decision on how Lake County solid waste will be handled in the future.

Citizen participation is a key part in deciding which of three waste management systems will be recommended by members of the Lake County Joint Action Solid Waste Planning Agency. Public input is critical, states Mayor Colin McRae of Mundelein, a member of the public relations committee. Every effort is being made to get a big turnout at a public forum at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 29, at College of Lake County.

Sorting out the pros and cons of each of the three systems will be a tough job. Mayor Vernon Clayton of Buffalo Grove, agency chairman, considers the public forum a landmark and already has decided that once the choice has been made, steps will be taken to push on to completion of a plan in 1989.

Hopefully, a clear-cut consensus will develop from the meeting. As McRae put it, the agency does not want to develop a plan the public does not support.

An agency committee has identified three separate configurations: 1. landfilling; 2. landfilling, recycling and composting; 3. landfilling, recycling, composting and incineration. The difference between the three plans is like night and day. On cost alone there is a range of $403,862,093 for a 20-year landfill system to $926,871,892 for a 20-year all encompassing waste management system. Keep in mind that we're not talking about the federal deficit. The trade-offs are mind-boggling. The cost per household for the most environmentally comprehensive system would be three times as much as plain landfilling by 1993.

We're happy to see the agency involving the public. It's the only way to go.

New United Way home

A decision on the part of the leadership of United Way of Lake County to obtain a permanent home by investing rather than renting deserves applause. And the location selected, the old Oak Grove School at O'Plaine and Buckley Rds., provides for a more central location and makes the social agency "more county" than ever.

When expansion work is completed and the relocation can actually be made, United Way will be breaking ties it has had with Waukegan since its founding. In our mind, that will be an advantage, although United Way officials didn't intend it that way. A special volunteer committee of the board of directors reviewed over 50 possible sites and studied both lease and purchase options. The board ultimately decided in favor of ownership. The "little red schoolhouse" atmosphere will fit nicely with the new facility.

Expanding space needs and rising rental costs tipped the scales in favor of ownership. Based on 1988 lease rates, United Way would be spending between $60,000 and $80,000 per year on rent by 1993. Roy G. Kerr, chairman, points out that the new home acquisition will not be accomplished by diverting funds from agencies supported by United Way. Purchase and remodeling will be funded through a combination of

Border warfare turns into see-saw economic battle

by BILL SCHROEDER

Illinois and Wisconsin are engaging in border warfare in a battle for economic supremacy in the highly competitive state line area.

On the Illinois side, in the forefront are members of the Lake County Economic Development Commission whose latest project is courting Cessna Aircraft and a $4.6-million jet engine overhaul facility that would bring up to 49 high paying, high tech jobs to the area.

Deputy Director Cranston O. Byrd has a letter on the way to Cessna requesting that Cessna settle in Waukegan to take advantage of the modern, full service airport. Nineteen corporations already utilize Waukegan Regional Airport. This translates into 200 jobs and more than $60 million in economic activity.

Who's ahead in the jousting for jobs and dollars? Earlier this year Wisconsin landed a sizeable paint plant to be built by Rust-Oleum Corp., headquartered in Vernon Hills. Since then, Illinois appears to have a leg up on first to locate a super regional discount shopping center in Gurnee at the tollway. The Badger state has countered with siting for two dog tracks to be worth millions now that parimutuel betting is legal.

Media coverage recounted the gloom hanging over Kenosha in the face of the Chrysler Corp. pull-out, but the reality is that Kenosha finally is getting out from under the onus of being a one industry town. A lot of folks are happy about that. The actual impact will be nowhere near the 5,000 jobs talked about.

When he finally decided on locating in Waukegan at space in the vacant Manville plant, William Durmer of CHF Industries of Grayslake paid special gifts, reserve funds and mortgage arrangements.

The entire Lake County community served by United Way can take pride in the new United Way home.

Now that the search for a new home is completed, United Way will shift attention to the annual fund drive which kicks off Thursday, Sept. 15 at a luncheon at Marriott's Lincolnshire Resort with a goal of $4,025,000. Eighty-one necessary human and health care programs receive United Way funding through 35 member agencies.

In a few weeks, nearly 3,500 volunteers will fan out to seek contributions. This is an excellent time to plan an individual contribution. United Way of Lake County is deserving of your support.

tribute to aggressive development work on the part of Illinois officials. "I don't know if Wisconsin so much dropped the ball as Illinois never let Wisconsin have the ball," declared Durmer.

CAMPAIGNING—Must be election time. U.S. Sen. Alan J. Dixon has scheduled a stop in Lake County Aug. 31 billed as an opportunity for voters to ask questions and give advice. The session will take place at 4 p.m. in the County Building. The Illinois Democrat is moving up in Democratic leadership ranks and currently is gunning for the post of chief deputy whip.

MOVING EVENT—As far as is known, the closest to Lake County the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, the Moving Wall, will get this season is Elmhurst where the half-scale replica of the actual wall in Washington, D.C., will be on display Sept. 8 to 14. The Moving Wall with all 58,132 names of those who died in Vietnam, will be on display 24 hours a day in Wilder Park. The exhibit is home based in San Jose, Calif.

Letters To The Editor

Off with their heads

Editor:

I don't know about the rest of you, but my wife, our sons and daughters and I are getting sick and tired of hearing on the radio, reading in the newspapers and seeing on television about child molesters and rapists.

Let's quit this baloney of giving them a sentence of one to two years and then putting them on probation at the end of six months so they can go out and do it again. You know as well as I that has been the pattern for the last 20 years.

You ask "What should we do?" Do as they did in the 17th and 18th century. Either behead them in a guillotine or burn them at the stake with no hands or feet. That way you will not be

Good medical care needs better communication

By LEO W. TANNENBAUM, M.D.

The medical luncheon discussion group met early in August. By chance, three had been involved with the care of the same patient; one as a primary physician, the others as consultants. They were discussing the problem such mutual involvement presented.

Yungfren said: "The relatives take careful handling. There are six sons and daughters and although I explained everything to the old gentleman and two of his offspring before surgery, I met two others for the first time. And two of you talked to Bopal. They weren't sure that my explanation matched yours."

Bopal chuckled and turned to Oldtimer. "That's the kind of thing you handled so well. Forty years of practice! Everyone loved you and appeared satisfied. Is there a secret?"

Medical usings

By Leo Tannenbaum, M.D.

Oldtimer smiled. "It's impossible to satisfy everyone," he said. "Actually, what you're talking about is communication. Individually and as a group we haven't done ourselves proud in reaching the public, our patients. This is not a high priority in medical school. Most of us do better consistently in diagnosis and treatment. We find ourselves fending off criticism from the media, bureaucrats, lawyers, economists or so-called ethicists who have never had to lay on hands in treating the sick."

Synik said wearily: "Six of 10 doctors have been sued, some more than once. Does the public really believe that six out of 10 doctors are either negligent, incompetent or vicious?"

Wirtuous broke in: "Am I right Oldtimer? You're saying that there is a distorted perception of the medical profession?"

"I'm saying that if you want to respond to Synik you'd have to say that's what the public apparently believes," Oldtimer replied. "Also, it follows that most lawsuits occur because there's an unsatisfactory result and the surprise that such a thing could occur. If communication were good, patients or their families long ago would have learned that there is a vast difference between a poor result and malpractice. Some patients are so sick that a poor result could happen. The patient and his people should be briefed beforehand that there are risks. In other words, weakness in communication over the last decades has led to unreasonable expectations. Television has led the public, through Ben Casey and Marcus Welby, to expect perfection and, if not achieved, someone has goofed or been uncaring. Naturally, this brings on indignation and, maybe, a lawsuit. In broad terms, everyone should know by now that medicine is not an exact science, but that you and the whole medical team (within those limits) are well trained and dedicated to good care and the best possible results."

Yungfren said, nodding at me, "Columns point out where the government and the media contribute to our problems by regulation and bureaucratically adding to the costs of medical care. I think we've got to get the public's attention because high costs add to the negative perceptions. In the majority of instances we're not at fault."

Wirtuous again said: "I think today's comments have painted correctly, in broad strokes, the overall need to address the public as a whole. But we should direct emphasis on the individual also. Shouldn't we take more time pointing out to each patient what the problems are, that the human body is dynamic, that sickness has changes and that we may have to change our approach in response to those changes? We should leave the patient with the perception at each visit that we stand ready to continue our efforts and we are interested in hearing how he or she is responding."

MUSINGS. There is something off-beat when the approach to the public takes the road now called "marketing" and a television commercial is used. That, certainly, does not contribute to better perception or better medical care.

No profession has been so ready to be self critical and so anxious to better itself thereby. Here's another consideration: When we think of what makes for better care it might be productive to consider it takes two to tango.

bothered with them again. Also, when the word gets around, anyone so inclined will forget the idea in a hurry.

Child molesting and rape have gotten so far out of hand it is ridiculous. Why? They know all they will get is a slap on the wrist, if that.

Back clean air bill

Editor:

Dangerously high air pollution levels threaten the health of millions of Americans every day. Acid rain is destroying lakes, streams and rivers across the country. Billions of pounds of toxics are released without restriction into the air each year. It is past time for Congress to enact tough new pollution controls.

The League of Women Voters believes the Senate should act quickly to pass S 1894, forceful and balanced legislation that will improve the air quality in our cities, cut pollution from vehicles and restrict toxic releases.

Acid rain controls must also be passed. Senator George Mitchell and 26 colleagues have proposed legislation that equitably shares the costs of cleaning up the pollutants that cause acid rain. This legislation should be enacted this year.

We have lobbied Senators Alan Dixon and Paul Simon to support S 1894. We encourage concerned citizens of this community to also urge our U.S. Senators to support this legislation.

In case you didn't wish Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson a happy birthday, it's still not too late. Her 60th milestone was Aug. 25 with an annual hash at the Gale Street Inn, Mundelein.

"Only someone as special and self assure as Barbara could so gracefully turn 60," said Lois Haines, who planned the party. That silver white hair may tell her age, but it belies her enthusiasm, personality and public service.

Richardson has been in the coroner's office since February 1977, was appointed coroner in Dec. 1982, elected in November 1984 and is now seeking re-election again.

Lake County

In conjunction with the United States Mint's Declaration of Aug. 7 through 13 as U.S. Olympic Coin Week, 1988 U.S. Olympic Commemorative Coins are now available at the Bank of Waukegan, said William L. Devore, vice president. The gold and silver Olympic coins are being minted this year to commemorate U.S. participation in the 1988 Olympic games. They are the only United States government-issued legal tender keepsakes of the games. Through a surcharge included in the cost of the coin, sales of the coins are expected to raise $49 million for the training of present and future Olympians under the auspices of the United States Olympic committee. ## Waukegan

Home Federal Savings and Loan Assn. of Lake County, a Waukegan based financial institution, with $300 million in assets, has been renamed Home Federal Bank for Savings, said Richard A. Samuels, president and chief executive officer. The change, which was effective Aug. 1, does not affect ownership of the institution. Home Federal Bank for Savings is a 30 year old institution serving the Lake County area, with its main office at 325 Washington St., Waukegan, and branch offices in Grayslake, Fox Lake, Lindenhurst, Round Lake Beach and Lake Zurich. Home Federal maintains a Residential Mortgage Office in Buffalo Grove, and a Commercial Mortgage Office in Chicago.

Long Grove

To help advance voter registration at area businesses, the Lake County Clerk's office, the Lake County/Waukegan Chamber of Commerce and the Kemper Group are co-sponsoring a voter registrar training session at Kemper's Long Grove headquarters Aug. 31. Representatives from Lake County businesses are invited to attend. The session will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will last no more than two hours. Lake County Clerk Linda Hess will address the group, after which her staff will train company representatives to be deputy registrars. Those registrars will then be able to register their interested co-workers. U.S. census data shows that the main reason 80 million citizens did not vote in the 1984 presidential election was not apathy, but the inconvenience of the voter registration process. The Kemper Group is located on Rte. 22 in Long Grove, just west of Old Mcherry Rd. For further information call Chuck Meinhardt, Kemper's community relations supervisor, at (312)540-2512.

Owners go with patrons
like pizza goes with beer

by RANDI OSTRO

Pizza Sam's owners Sam Selvaggio and Mike McIntyre, plan to build a "state-of-the-art" pizza parlor—but won't open it until after the spring thaw in deference to their customers.

Selvaggio said that "customer loyalty," a give-and-take that secures Pizza Sam's popularity by continuous customer satisfaction, is the reason.

"Another pizza place could open up with the exact same product and we wouldn't be hurt that much because of customer loyalty," Selvaggio said.

Customer loyalty is not easily acquired, but once earned, it doesn't seem to diminish.

Indeed, last winter parka-clad patrons persevered through a remodeling snag that kept the restaurant as cold inside as it was outside.

What's the secret to winning a customer's heart? "Everything we serve—it's made with love," McIntyre said.

Pizza Sam's provides for the community as well as its customers. In fact, each time it donates food to community activities or sponsors a Little League baseball team, that customer loyalty grows and grows.

Moreover, their employees possess similar beliefs regarding customer treatment. And when they expand the Wauconda restaurant into a 10-store empire, Selvaggio intends to hire people to run them who believe in doing business the same way he and McIntyre do.

"We would like to own a number of stores, but we want them run the right way," Selvaggio said he would like "a definite formula for Pizza Sam's so when we build in other cities, they will run equally smooth."

Their motives straddle financial practicality and community allegiance. They strive to "sew up" an area, meaning we want to be a major factor in Wauconda and all surrounding towns," Selvaggio said.

"We want to build an empire and then sell it all to a bigger conglomerate rather than franchise," he added, because we're not convinced that franchises are that easy to sell."

Before they speculate on more locations, however, Selvaggio and McIntyre are focusing on the soon-to-

Cost of homes up sharply

by RANDI OSTRO

The average price of Lake County homes rose to more than $100,000 over the first six months of 1988, up 11.3 percent over the same period last year.

The average price of all homes sold through the multiple listing service of the Lake County Board of Realtors was $102,236, more than $10,000 higher than the first six months of 1987. About 10 percent of the homes sold were newly built.

"It is the mix of new and existing homes that changes the averages," said Thomas P. Kreuser, president of the 2,000-member organization.

"Builders in Libertyville are building $350,000 homes, and depending on how many are listed or independently sold, the average price could go up," he said.

The average price of a home in Libertyville was more than $170,000, the highest in the surveyed area. Round Lake's average home price, $60,066, was the lowest.

Homes in the far southwest and southeast corners of the county, including those in Lake Forest, Barrington and Deerfield, are not listed with the MLS of the Lake County Board of Realtors, and therefore not included in the average.

The number of unit sales is down from a year ago. The number of homes sold in the first half of this year, 2,079, is 21.7 percent lower than the total unit sales in the first half of 1987.

Home purchase prices

That doesn't bother Kreuser, however.

"This is a healthy level we're at now," he said. "After the boom we experienced in 1986, the numbers are good (even though) they're down."

The average price of a home jumped 14.5 percent in Grayslake to $114,587. That's the greatest rate of increase and the second-highest figure.

Waukegan's increase of 2.8 percent was the lowest. Libertyville, where homes were most expensive, saw a 9.6 percent increase.

Kreuser stressed that the percentage increase in sale price isn't necessarily the appreciation rate, as the "mix" of homes sold from year to year can be different.

Grayslake, Gurnee, Libertyville and Mundelein, for example, had significant numbers of new homes sold through the MLS, and most of these were priced above the average.

Market's election tie still poses questions

This year, some savvy investors are following another market indicator: the presidential elections. Many believe that election years have an influence on the Dow Jones Industrial Average, but to what extent, nobody's quite certain.

J. Kenneth Rosko, Ltd., a registered representative of FSC Securities Corporation (member NASD, SIPC), says the most common theory is that the economy does well during election years because the incumbent candidate or party wants voters to see progress.

This progress, however, seems to fade quickly. According to one study, unpopular decisions are made during a post-election year, sending the stock market into a nose-dive. The market has only flourished in five out of 18 post-election years, says Rosko.

But take a look at the actual short-term effects of the election year. Research shows the market has risen in nine out of 10 election years since World War II. "Of course, these theories should be taken with a grain of salt. The market fell in 1984, during an election year, and rose the following year," Rosko adds.

This year you'll hear a lot of hype about both politicians and investments. "When you're making your decisions, remember to look at such issues as the federal and trade deficits, interest rates, the possibilities of recession or inflation, and the stability of the dollar," says Rosko.

While it is interesting to examine past election-year market trends, your best bet is remaining in the present. But if you insist on repeating history, look for the tried-and-true characteristics that make up a quality investment, or president, for that matter. Characteristics like strength, leadership, and the ability to perform, Rosko stresses.

Secretaries assume more responsibility, Kelly says

The computerization of the office is changing not only what people do, but how they work as well, according to D. J. Blum, a district manager for Kelly Services, a leading national temporary company, with an office in Libertyville. Blum says that office automation has created new and dynamic opportunities in the workplace.

"We see that secretaries are experiencing and enjoying the benefits of what we call 'task migration,'" Blum said. "Jobs done by management five years ago, such as spreadsheet preparation and database management, are now accomplished by secretaries."

Office automation is blurring the traditional dividing lines between "clerical" and "professional" work. Today secretaries are involved with information management, and some planning and decision-making, according to Blum.

Reviewing plans

LCHA Executive Director Alon Jeffrey reviews new office construction with original plans. Housing office, east of CLC on Route 45, organizes housing assistance for some 2,600 Lake County residents. Office scheduled to move before Sept. 1.

LCHA: new 'kid' on block

by RANDI OSTRO

The Lake County Housing Authority is finally settling into a place of its own.

The new location of the $1 million facility "is a prime choice," said Alon Jeffrey, LCHA executive director, "because it is central to the county."

The 11,000 square-foot building off of Route 45 near Gages Lake Road is divided into administrative and maintenance sections.

Currently headquartered at 300 N. Seymour Ave., Mundelein, the LCHA expects to move some 50 employees by Aug. 29.

V.W. Construction of Zion is developing the plans that Michael DeLapp and Associates, Barrington, designed.

The LCHA saved money from government allotments and from fees for operating programs to pay for the building.

The LCHA assists homeless families and individuals through housing projects and rent-assistance programs. About 2,600 families per year in Lake County receive some assistance from this federally funded program. Many more patiently wait their turn.

"We have a waiting list of one to five years," Jeffrey said. A priority list helps make the choice less painful: Those who live in sub-standard conditions are served first, then those who are about to be involuntarily displaced, and then those who pay more than half of their annual income for shelter.

Eligibility for housing assistance is determined by annual income. Based on federal statutes, family income must earn less than half of the average income for that county.

The level is "higher than you think," Jeffrey said. A family of four with an income up to $23,150 can qualify for assistance.

A handicapped individual or someone 62 or older may also qualify for assistance. Depending on demand, singles who do not fall into either category could receive assistance too, but the county's 600 public housing units are in high demand.

With fewer housing projects and more scattered single-family homes, no one area is inundated with low-income housing projects. Currently, 120 of the 600 units are single-family homes that have been rehabilitated throughout the county.

begin construction of the new building, which will be behind the current location at Rte. 176 and Brown Road.

Right now, the owners are crossing their fingers and hope that this construction go more smoothly than the last remodeling in 1987.

"During the remodeling, we did everything wrong...there's no reason we should still be in business," Selvaggio said. "There has been a lot of stuff that we got burned on because we were too trusting...of someone's word."

Tribulations with a contractor turned a simple atrium addition into a seven-month, multiple-builder project. Nonetheless, Selvaggio expects the new building to open in April, 1989.

"Right now, we're past the point of apprehension. We've got to do it," Selvaggio said. "We can fall flat on our faces, because we're young enough to rebuild...to start it up and get our act together."

The new building will seat approximately 105 in a stucco, glass and neon self-service restaurant. Like Pizza Sam's now, they hope to keep prices down by not hiring waitresses.

"We understand that adding 10 to 20 percent to a check is sometimes too much for families on a tight budget. We serve a high-quality pizza at a low price," Selvaggio said.

Selvaggio and McIntyre both worked for an amusement-repair business. McIntyre wanted to open a hot-dog stand, but instead he entered a partnership with Selvaggio after Pizza Sam's was about six-months old.

"This town was starving for good pizza," Selvaggio said, and he set about delivering one. They use fresh pizza dough, real cheese, fresh sausage, homemade spaghetti sauce, and over 95 percent of the menu is prepared in the restaurant.

They are committed to the pizza business. "It's no longer a 'Ma and Pa' restaurant," Selvaggio said. "And it is not a fast-food restaurant. Everybody eats off this place."

Kingston Trio set for Opera House

On Sunday, Sept. 25, the Kingston Trio, one of the country's paramount folk singing groups, is coming to the Woodstock Opera House for a benefit for the McHenry County Defenders.

The Kingston trio is one of the few groups today that has survived the many changes in the world of music. They have remained consistent in their sound, which probably explains their resurgence in popularity over the last few years.

Tournament scheduled for Midlane

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation is inviting all Lake County area golfers to participate in their fifth annual golf outing at Midlane Country Club in Wadsworth on Aug. 31. The money raised at this charitable event will be donated to the battle against Cystic Fibrosis.

Every day, every eight hours, Cystic Fibrosis takes the life of another American youth. The annual golf event hopes to raise $30,000 to donate towards the prevention and cure of Cystic Fibrosis this year.

Tickets for the outing include everything for a great day on the links. Green fees, cart, locker room, shower, towels, coffee and rolls, lunch, and awards dinner, on course refreshments and prizes are all part of the package.

Prime tee-times and sponsorship positions for the outing are still available for the event. Call Jan Johnson of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at 1-800-824-5064 for more information and to sign up for this worthwhile cause.

In 1959, the trio received a Grammy Award for being the best country music group as there was no folk category.

Also appearing on Sept. 25, will be local folk singers Steve and Sylvia, who are returning to the Opera House for their second year to perform a selection of environmental and folk songs.

Tickets are $16 and can be purchased from the Opera House, (815) 338-5300, or the Defenders office in Woodstock. The concert starts at 8 p.m.

The McHenry County Defenders is an environmental group that operates several local recycling programs. Proceeds from the concert help to support the Defenders' education and advocacy programs and projects.

Professional chef shares food secrets in CLC class

The College of Lake County Food Service Program will really start to cook this fall with the addition of an instructor/chef who will help debut the new commercial kitchen and banquet dining room.

Siegfried Beyer, a native of West Germany with experience in restaurants throughout Europe, has joined the program's instructional staff and will teach classes in food preparation.

Students will obtain practical experience by preparing food in the new kitchen that will be served in the dining room.

"This is what I've always wanted to do," said Beyer, an Elmhurst resident, of his new position. "The kitchen is very modern, with up-to-date equipment and excellent supplies. I'm very excited about teaching this fall."

Beyer has a wealth of cooking experience both in the United States and in Europe. He charts his interest in cooking back to his childhood, when he helped his mother cook traditional dishes and helped out in their family-owned restaurant.

Beyer served his cook apprenticeship and attended business school in West Germany. He worked in European restaurants, hotels, resorts and at one point a cruise line.

He came to the United States in 1963 to work at the Seven Continents Restaurant at O'Hare Airport and worked for various Chicago area restaurants, including a 10-year stint as executive chef at Han's Bavarian Lodge in Wheeling.

Beyer returned to West Germany when his father died and received master cook training. He owned and managed several restaurants over the next nine years before deciding to return to the Chicago area as corporate executive chef of Hega Corporation in 1987. Now he's looking forward to his duties at CLC.

Siegfried Beyer

"Many professionals are uneasy about sharing their 'secrets,'" Beyer said. "I want to help students become better people and share my experience, while doing what I love. The best way to do that is to teach at a college."

Students can still enroll for food service classes for the fall semester, which begins Aug. 22.

For more information, call Cliff Wener, food service coordinator, at (312) 223-6601, ext. 523 or 515.

Milwaukee, good place to visit

by COLONEL BILL RADKE

Milwaukee, Wisc., 50 miles away, arrives easily via good highways. Visitors will see a city of spirit, building and rebuilding amid ethnic neighborhoods. It's a city of 600,000 that grew with people in mind, by providing 14,500 acres of park serving a four-county metropolitan complex of nearly 1.25 million.

We bused between the Ramada Inn and various downtown locations, noticing residential care and ordeliness enroute. It's a town of many proud neighborhoods.

We passed St. Josephat's Basilica, ornate and richly decorated, Milwaukee's largest church.

It's a Chicago tie-in that occurred by using recycled brick and stone salvaged from the demolished Chicago Post Office at the turn of the century.

Over a three-year period, $20,000 in stone and brick were railroaded in a car at a time, and worked into this monument of faith by Polish immigrant parishioners who scaled its majestic dome after St. Peter's in Rome. Sunday tours are given.

German immigrants, with their beer, sausage, "gemutlichkeit" and industry, get the most credit for the city's personality, but the Poles and Irish were strongly active.

We toured a neighborhood called the Polish Flats, where penniless immigrants worked to save enough for property, followed by a ceiled basement—where they lived—and finally a second floor for family or income.

They are recognized by having two doors, one on street level for basement entry and the second heading the stairway to the upper floor.

Today's famous ethnic restaurants confirm Milwaukee's melting pot tradition. Our first evening was at Hyatt Regency's Polaris Restaurant, where diners enjoy wonderful food and a panoramic view of the city and lake, as Polaris completes its rotation each 45 minutes 150 feet above the street.

That was followed by the graceful, physical excellence of the Hamburg Ballet in the performing arts center where the initial ballet performance, "A Streetcar Named Desire", created a heady atmosphere of the art.

"A Great Place on a Great Lake" is Milwaukee's slogan. We sampled the lakefront while attending Summerfest on the breezy midway, which attracted thousands during its 10-day sequence. There were evening lakefront fireworks, where three-fourths of a million spectators lined every open space.

The following day we boarded the 115-foot Star of Milwaukee for a two-and-a-half-hour lakefront cruise, including unlimited buffet dining, surrounded by nautical excellence. We had a great view of Milwaukee's glistening waterfront, its pleasure boats and building backdrop. Chicago also has a sister "Star" fleet member, as do six other cities.

So much was packed into so little time as we moved from sight to site—shopping centers connected by enclosed sky walks and a tailgate picnic lunch preceding a Brewer-Twins game

Lambs set Moss adult art show

In conjunction with the Country Framer in Libertyville, The Lambs will proudly host a public exhibit for artist P. Buckley Moss on Monday, Sept. 12 at The Lambs Inn Restaurant in Libertyville. The first showing is from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. followed by a second show from 6 to 8 p.m.

Recognized for her unique style combining the abstract and the realistic, P. Buckley Moss is also known for her respect for American tradition. Her paintings have touched people in all parts of the world.

Born in Staten Island, N.Y. in 1933,

Moss graduated in fine arts and graphic design from The Cooper Union. In 1986, she received an honorary doctorate of the arts from Centenary College and in the same year she was made cultural laureate of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Moss is an advocate of art programs in school facilities. She also donates her paintings and prints to charitable events. A portion of proceeds from sales during the exhibit will benefit The Lambs, a non-profit vocational and residential facility for mentally retarded adults.

The lake in the desert

by JIM WARNEK, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL

It was hot, dry Nevada summer day. I had just driven through miles of desert on my way back to Las Vegas from a visit to Laughlin. I decided to take a side trip to Lake Mead before catching a late-night flight back to Chicago. I made the turn onto Hwy. 93 and drove through the town of Boulder City. Just at the edge of town, a sight appeared which, after a day of desert driving, sure looked like a mirage.

For miles in either direction was one of the most beautiful lakes I have ever seen. Deep blue water with cliff-lined shores as far as the eye could see. And all this in the middle of a Nevada desert! This was Lake Mead.

Only 30 miles southwest of Las Vegas is the largest man-made lake in the Western Hemisphere. By dumping a few million yards of concrete in just the right spot on the Colorado River, the Army Corps of Engineers created a lake (and Hoover Dam) that extends some 115 miles with 550 miles of shoreline.

This lake in the desert provides a diversion from the nightlife and glitter of Vegas. Boating, swimming, fishing, waterskiing and even scuba diving are provided by six marinas along the lake. If you want to spend more than just a day on Lake Mead, try renting a houseboat. They are available with fully equipped kitchens, bathrooms with showers, beds and even stereos and gas barbecues.

The Lake Mead recreation area is administered by the National Park Service. Admission to the park area is free. There is a visitor's center, open daily, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and is located four miles northeast of Boulder City. You can even take a self-guided tour with the help of a recorded tape available at the center. You can also tune to 1600 on your AM radio when you are within the park for information on the day's activities.

So the next time it's 100 degrees in Vegas, grab your swimsuit and head south on Hwy. 93 for a day of fun on the lake in the desert!

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of Abbott Laboratories, an exhibit on the history of the company is on view at the Lake County Museum through Sept. 5. The exhibit documents the fact that the company began in Chicago in 1888 and moved to Sheridan Rd. in North Chicago in 1925. Today, Abbott Laboratories is Lake County's largest private employer, with some 9,500 people and over 1,000 local retirees. Additionally, Abbott occupies more than 90 buildings in Lake County. The exhibit conveys that Dr. Wallace Abbott originally called his enterprise the Abbott Alkaloidal Co. and changed the name to Abbott Laboratories in 1915.

Early on, he produced unique products and published medical journals and textbooks. Today, Abbott has some 40,000 employees throughout the world who develop, produce and distribute products in 130 countries. Abbott products and services reach into many areas of health care—including pharmaceuticals, hospital products, nutritions and diagnostics.

Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. President Donald Strenger encourages all to attend the exhibit. "I hope that everyone will visit the Lake County Museum to learn the fascinating history of this Lake County company."

The Lake County Museum is open daily from 1 to 4:30 p.m. The museum is located on Rte. 176 in the Lakewood Forest Preserve. Admission fees are: adults, $1; students and seniors, 50 cents; pre-schoolers and museum association members are free. Monday is a free day for all.

Artists get fair honors

Lipizzan's twilight show to end record season

A special twilight performance has just been announced as the grand finale to the Tempel Lipizzans' 1988 summer show season. Scheduled for 7 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 26 at Tempel Farms in Wadsworth, IL., the twilight performance will present the "Ballet of the White Stallions" against the backdrop of a countryside sunset.

Tempel Farms is the only place in America where rare Lipizzan stallions regularly perform the breathtaking leaps and majestic promenades of classical dressage as they did for the crowned heads of Europe in the 16th century.

"The special twilight performance is our way of thanking the thousands of friends, families and horse lovers that have made this summer's shows a record-breaking success," said Roberta Williams, director of program development for Tempel Farms.

"And for those who have never seen the Tempel Lipizzans perform, the twilight show will provide a beautiful initiation to these magnificent horses."

"In rehearsals, we've found that the twilight adds an extra dimension of drama to the performance," said Williams. "As the setting sun pours into the indoor arena, it produces a luminescent glow, highlighting the shimmer of the Lipizzans' lustrous white coats and glistening off gold bridles. Set to classical music, it should indeed be a breathtaking spectacle...and we're excited to share it with the public."

The hour-long twilight performance will follow the advancement of the Lipizzan from his early days through his rigorous schooling which takes place over many years as the horse gains proficiency. From the initial introduction of the farm's newest foals, untrained and frisky alongside their mares, the program progresses through Airs Above the Ground, a spectacular display of breathtaking leaps and lifts, recreating the strenuous medieval cavalry maneuvers for which the Lipizzans are famed. The exhibition culminates in the Quadrille in which four of the most highly trained horses perform dressage's most difficult exercises in perfect and beautiful unison.

The Lipizzans are currently presenting outdoor performances at Tempel Farms each Sunday at 1 p.m. and Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. through Aug. 21. Tickets for all shows, including the added twilight performance, are $8.50 for adults and $5 for children 5 through 14.

The twilight performance will be held in Tempel Farms' indoor performance arena.

Tickets are available at the gate. Group discounts may be arranged by calling (312) 244-5330. Parking is free. For additional performance information call (312) 623-7272.

Lakeland WEEKEND

Pheasant Run to go country over Labor Day weekend

-Saturday, Sept. 3, Mickey Gilley and Tanya Tucker open the Labor Day weekend at Pheasant Run Resort with two shows on Saturday at 6:30 and 9 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 4, John Gary opens for Crystal Gayle for one show at 7:30 p.m.

Music festival Aug. 27-28

Get set for a contemporary Christian music extravaganza on Aug. 27 and 28 at Six Flags Great America. Joyfest II, the park's contemporary Christian music festival, will be filled with the music of this year's top artists. The two-day event Gilley, who tends to gain momentum as each year passes, has to date 17 number one records. At the same time he has received extensive television exposure via programs such as 20/20, Hollywood Squares, The Grammy Awards Show, and The Tonight Show.

this fun and excitement is included in the park's one-price general admission.

The weekend's headline entertainer, LeFever, is a famed rock musician and songwriter from the '70s who converted to Christianity in the early '80s.

He delights his audiences not only with his vocal talents, but also with his spine-tingling dexterity on the piano.

Tucker will share the spotlight Saturday night for two shows with Gilley. She has been belting out country songs since the age of nine. Early in 1986, she released her first album with Capitol Records, the results, four consecutive top 10 hits, including "Just Another Love".

Sunday, Sept. 4, John Gary opens for Crystal Gayle. A total entertainer, Gary with his country music, showtunes and ragtime, makes a perfect opener for Gayle, who will again touch the heart of country music's timeless appeal, singing of common hopes and dreams, simple pleasures and shared burdens, she embraces a whole range of musical styles. Pheasant Run is located on Rte. 64 (North Ave.) three miles west of Rte. 59 in St. Charles.

Brad Garrett

By Wendy Wallace

What makes stand-up comedian/actor Brad Garrett different from most television actors? For one thing, his height: He's 6 feet 9 inches tall. For another, he does impressions. Both traits are obvious on "First Impressions," a new series that premieres Saturday, Aug. 27 on CBS.

Garrett stars as Frank Dutton, a partner in Media of Omaha — a commercial production company — and a man of a thousand voices. Dutton finds himself face-to-face with one dilemma after another. His wife has just left him, and all of a sudden he is a single parent to his 9-year-old daughter, Lindsay (Brandy Gold). And he's stuck with a business partner (Thom Sharp) who has grandiose plans that too often spell ruin, and a sound engineer (James Noble) whose advice and actions are generally unsound.

Born in Oxnard, Calif., and raised in Los Angeles, Garrett entered UCLA planning to major in theater arts. But college life lasted just five weeks before he decided to pursue his dream of a comedy career. In 1984, he gained instant attention as the first "Star Search" $100,000 Grand Champion. Shortly afterward Garrett was selected by People magazine as one of its Top Ten New Comedians, and began appearing regularly on "The Tonight Show."

"The great thing about doing stand-up for seven years prior to acting is that you're used to being alone," Garrett says. "I think that now, on prime-time television, that will really help a lot. It's great to know that someone else's motions or timing will get you out of a situation."

Coming next week

Although it may be hard to believe, football season is here.

Lakeland Newspapers will celebrate this occasion with its annual Football Preview edition covering teams in Kenosha, Lake and McHenry counties. The section will be filled with team previews, pictures, schedules and all the necessary information for the casual football fan or the armchair quarterback.

For those looking ahead, season openers on Sept. 2 are: Carmel at Waukegan East; Jacobs at Grant; St. Catherine's (Racine) at Grayslake; Fenton at Warren; Lake Zurich at Riverside-Brookfield. All games feature 8 p.m. kickoffs.

And they're off!

Runners participating in the 10-K run in Vernon Hills strive Weekend was one of the last for summer running enthusiasts for that all-important strong start. Julie Gormski took first in the 17-24 year old group for 45:44. Pam Fronk was the women's overall winner in 44:16.

Football season's first practices give teams chance to start fresh for '88

by STEVE PETERSON

Sports Editor

It's the only time of the season when everyone is equal.

That first week of practice has come and gone for Lake County football teams, all trying work out the kinks of a summer off or see if the plays that worked last fall will work when the new season dawns on Sept. 2 and 3. Until then at least, everyone is a playoff contender, or hoping to finish in the top half of their conference.

"In the first week, we work a lot on conditioning with running and stretching," Grayslake Coach Harold Jahnke said.

Like several other schools, Grayslake held a football camp for its incoming players this summer. "I think the summer camp helped," Jahnke said.

Jahnke said in general, athletes are reporting in better shape to pre-season camps than their counterparts of five or 10 years ago.

Most teams are working on a practice schedule of 16 days preparation before the season openers. According to Illinois State High School Assn. rules, a student must participate in 14 practices before they can play in a game.

At North Chicago, second-year coach Wayne Fiedler is already looking forward to a difficult challenge - the first game will be against North Suburban Conference power Lake Forest Sept. 3.

"We're trying to get the fundamentals in," Fiedler said of Week One.

For two schools, Johnsburg and Antioch, the first week has meant a chance for players to get to know the new man in charge. Hap Farlow took over from Mike Roberts at Johnsburg while Dale Pechauer replaces Steve Wagon at Antioch.

Twins set playoff slate

The Kenosha Twins, first half northern division champions in the Midwest League, will be competing in the Midwest League playoffs on Aug. 31.

As winners of the first half, the Twins had the choice of hosting game one of the divisional series or games two and three (if necessary) of the best-of-three series. The Twins have elected to take the home field advantage and will host Midwest League playoff baseball for the third time in four years at 7:05 p.m. on Sept. 1. The opponent will be the second half north division champion or should the Twins repeat, the team from the division with the next best overall record.

The Midwest League best-of-five championship series will begin immediately following completion of the northern and southern divisional series. The championship series will begin Sept. 2 if both divisional series go only two games or Sept. 3 if either series goes three games.

Should the Twins win the northern division playoff, they would host the first two games of the championship series.

No business will be transacted on Monday, Sept. 5, Labor Day. Regular business will resume on Tuesday, Sept. 6. Have a safe and Happy Holiday.

Olson, Frystak, Rous aim to contribute

Three area football players will be hoping to contribute at North Central College this fall.

Senior Bryan Olson, a two-year letterman from Grayslake, has been chosen by his teammates to be a captain of the Cardinals football team.

A graduate of Grayslake Community High School, Olson has been a consistent starter for the Cardinals since transferring from the College of Lake County in 1986. The 6-0, 215-pound outside linebacker has totalled more than 80 tackles during his career, and more than half of them were unassisted. Last year he recorded 41 tackles - 29 solo - and led the team in tackles-for-losses with five.

"Bryan is one of the strongest players on the team. We will count on him to carry a big load for us this year. He sat out a year while at CLC because they don't have a football program, but he has really been a contributor for us the last two years," North Central Coach Paul Conner said.

Lots of passing.

According to the updated Illinois High School Assn. record books, 38 is the highest number of passes attempted. Walnut High threw the ball that many times against Milledgeville in the preliminary round playoff game in 1985. They completed 18 of the passes for 291 yards.

Two 1988 graduates of Grant High School in Fox Lake, Kevin Frystak and Kurt Rous, are also on the roster.

Frystak, son of Carl and Loretta Frystak of Libertyville, was a running back for the Bulldogs. He garnered the Northwest Suburban Conference most valuable player honor.

A three-sport athlete, he was named to the all-conference and all-county football team and was captain of the Grant squad.

Rous, son of Richard Rous and Joanna Roer of McHenry, was the leading tackler for the Bulldogs. A three-sport athlete, he was named to the academic all-conference football team.

North Central competes in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW).

generally regarded as the best small college conference in the nation. The Cardinals finished last season with a 6-3 record, 5-3 and third place in the CCIW.

North Central opens its season Sept. 17 as the Cardinals host Elmhurst College at Kroehler Field for a 7:30 p.m. game. The Cardinals will be looking for revenge after being upset by the Bluejays 22-19 in the final game of the 1987 season. The game is also the first CCIW contest for both teams.

The Panthers lose four seniors - Brenda Leslie, Gina Augustine, Denise Kraly and Kelly Kuxhouse to graduation, but the experience gained by the eight underclassmen who played varsity should help, Brown said.

"They look pretty good for early on. We will be a real small team so we will have to rely on our quickness," Brown, starting his second year at RLSHS, said.

Johnsburg High School sports teams are in for a busy week when they return to full fall schedules next week. The girls tennis team begins its season Aug. 30 at Cary-Grove. Next is a series of three home matches against Mundelein, Jacobs and St. Edward

When baseball and softball coaches talk about they keys to success, they often say 'you've got to be strong up the middle' - meaning catcher, pitcher and second base.

Volleyball coaches have a saying to match that one. "To be suc- cessful, you have to have a good setter."

And Warren volleyball Coach Chris Woodard is hoping to fill that key position with senior Jan

Jahnke.

"For most coaches, filling that key position is important and in volleyball that position is setter. You have to find someone with leadership skills and the personality to match. Jan has the desire to be a setter," Woodard said.

Jahnke joins fellow seniors Lydia Gonzalez and Andrea True as the leaders of the '88 Blue Devil team. "They're taking charge already," Woodard said.

The rest of the team, though, is comprised basically of a young group of juniors whose ability to improve may hold the future for Warren.

Joining the three seniors who saw playing time last fall is junior Melissa Webster.

Warren is coming off an 18-10 dual meet record last year and the Blue Devils advanced to the regional final before being upset by Zion-Benton.

Seniors are solving refuse problem by recycling

by BILL SCHROEDER

Richard "Dick" Whittington knows as much about recycling as anyone. As a retired biochemist from Abbott Laboratories, he followed a natural inclination to turn a one-time casual interest into a scientific quest.

Today, Whittington's interest in recycling is anything but casual. The soft-spoken, but intense man of science sees recycling as "part of the answer to the whole problem of disposing of solid waste."

Whittington feels good about the title he has acquired in following what has become a passion. He's the non-paid director of environment and recycling for Grayslake, where he makes his home. Whittington is the driving force behind Grayslake's pioneer self-supporting recycling program that operates two hours per week from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday to recycle newspaper, glass and aluminum. Whittington is precise about the program's goals and aims. "We're in business to serve the community, not make a profit."

Because Grayslake lies in the shadow of Lake County's growing landfill mountain on Rte. 83, there's a broad based interest in recycling and the knotty landfill problem. The recycling center was an area first. Now the village has the area's first automated refuse-collection system, where householders are furnished with a special garbage container that can be picked up and emptied without an operator leaving his place at the wheel of the garbage truck. The system is being operated by HOD Inc., Antioch, a division of Waste Management, Inc., the Oakbrook-based company that operates worldwide.

Whittington stresses that he doesn't approach solid waste disposal with a "ban the bomb" mentality. "No matter what," he cautions, "landfills will be needed. Recycling, Incineration. We'll still need landfills."

He advances the cause for recycling from the view of lessening the need for "burying" all the waste society generates. Whittington sees Grayslake's recycling effort as taking 20 to 25 percent of the material out of the waste stream. He's delighted that Grayslake is benefiting from one of the lowest garbage pick-up rates in the county because of the recycling project. Leave it to a scientist to illustrate his point with numbers. Whittington calculated that Grayslake residents generate 488 tons of waste newspaper per year. Eighty to 90 tons of paper a year are collected at the recycling center. That's pretty close to Whittington's 20-percent yardstick.

It's not surprising that Whittington is Grayslake's representative on the Lake County Solid Waste Planning Agency. He also represents Grayslake at landfill meetings in Springfield and solid waste seminars.

One thing was surprising. Whittington is not impressed with so-called "bottle bills", where consumers are reimbursed for returning cans and bottles. Forced recycling is impractical, he believes. Besides, with aluminum cans bringing two cents each, scavengers keep the roadsides clean.

It's comforting to know that there are persons of Dick Whittington's dedication and ability working to solve the solid waste problem. They need our support. Hopefully, they'll get the backing and understanding so sorely needed.

Dick Whittington

Restored Eyes Club sets sights

The Eye Care Center of Lake County is looking for patients willing to share their time and experience of cataract surgery with other people who are about to face the same need. "We have located some very special and caring people," states Patty Sliva, surgery counselor. "We went to our patients and asked for help," says Sliva, "and the Restored Eyes Club has come into being."

On Aug. 3 charter members of the club met at the Eye Care Center of Lake County, introduced themselves and shared their experiences about the cataract surgery process.

After getting acquainted, members agreed on the mission of the group and the responsibilities to future cataract surgery patients. The club will meet four times a year for special programs, while the rest of the year they will be busy calling cataract surgery patients to answer any concerns or questions pertaining to the surgery. If the patient has a medical question or problem, they will be referred to the Eye Care Center.

Nursing home costs will exhaust the savings of millions of families

by CONRAD MEIER
MEIER INSURANCE SERVICES

This year, the cost of nursing home care will financially ruin many American families that worked a life-time for a comfortable retirement.

The Brookings Institute figures that 54% of the elderly people who enter nursing homes end up on the Medicaid welfare program.

People 65 and older have median assets, excluding homes, of less than $14,000--half have more, half have less. At the average nursing home cost of $22,000 a year, $60 a day, most seniors would exhaust their savings in eight months.

Mark Pauly, the University of Pennsylvania health economist, refers to long term nursing home care as an "expensive death."

Wealthy people are capable of absorbing the $22,000 a year bill. Others can't afford the insurance or because of advanced age/health reasons can't get it.

The vast majority of Seniors find themselves in the middle and the target of the insurance companies jumping in to provide the coverage.

When you decide to purchase long-term health care, consider these guidelines:

- Insure with top quality companies that have been offering this type of policy. No "me too" companies!
- Premiums should run between $250-$300 a year for someone aged 50-55...$1,500 a year for 79-80 year olds. Most companies deny insurance after age 80.
- Policy should pay $25 to more than $50 a day for "at home care."
- Covers cost of $50 to $100 a day for skilled, intermediate AND custodial care.
- Covers Alzheimer's, provides insurance for 3 to 10 years and is guaranteed to be renewable.

SHOP AROUND. Work with an independent insurance broker who can compare more than one company for you.

• Read the fine print. There are many conditions and restrictions under which a policy won't pay. Many policies don't pay a dime for non-medical custodial care just because you can't be taken care of at home.

• Some policies require prior hospitalization or prior confinement in a skilled-care nursing home.

• Get a policy that increases per-day benefits as the cost-of-living goes up. The younger you are the more important to protect for inflation.

Senior writer pens poetry

This poem was written by Lillian Johnson of Gurnee, a member of the Warren Twp. Senior Writer's Group. She is a newcomer to Lake County, retiring after 18 years as clerk for the city of Wheaton and moving to Gurnee in Nov. 1987.

Her poem, "Serendipity," is the result of an exercise the writer's group completed. Six members selected one word each and were required to use the six words in poetry or prose totalling not more than 250 words. The words were: serendipity, range, abacus, equipment, influential and circumlocution.

BEST FOOT FORWARD FROM THE OFFICE OF DR. PAUL ABLER CARING FOR OLDER FEET

By the time a person reaches retirement age, the feet have put on countless miles, borne a cumulative weight of several million tons, and suffered assorted bumps, stubblings and other injuries. Good foot-care habits are essential for keeping the feet in good working order.

Walking is the best exercise for the feet. Choose shoes with firm soles and soft uppers. Bathe feet daily in lukewarm water, using a mild soap. Never cut corns or calluses yourself.

Inspect the feet daily for discoloration, swelling, numbness, sores, brittle nails and skin cracks. Don't delay in seeing the podiatrist if these or other foot problems develop.

Serendipity

by Lillian Johnson

In a rather small community
Lived a girl name Serendipity
She was cute as she could be
And always loved to climb a tree.

Some folks thought that it was strange
For a girl to ride the range
Or playing football with the boys;
She liked this better than her toys.

When Serendipity was just a lass
Her father gave her an abacus
He hoped that she would learn to use it
But all she did was promptly lose it.

He would buy her equipment that she could use
For any profession that she would choose Providing she chose to be a lawyer
But she preferred to play Tom Sawyer.

She knew her father was influential
But she didn't know her own potential
Her father hoped she'd be a banker
She said she'd rather drive a tanker.

Her father turned to circumlocution
And nearly started a revolution
She vowed she would become a nun
Oh, how he wished he'd had a son!

STRICTLY for SENIORS

All an exciting senior vacation needs is YOU

by CORA A.M. NELSON

If you are a married, male senior citizen with your wife of all those years at your side, you had better arrange to keep an eye on her the next time you go golfing with the boys.

"Retired women over 55 are enthusiastic travelers," says Jim Warnken, president of North Star Travel, Inc., in Lake Villa, "and if good ol' George" can't be roused to travel, they are likely to pack their bags and go with a girlfriend."

Not all retired men are stay-at-home types, however, and that's why seniors have attracted a great deal of attention in the travel industry.

"Seniors are a major market," Warnken says. "Their children are grown, the house is usually paid for, expenses are down and their savings have built up over the years. And they have the time to travel."

With the time to enjoy a more leisurely lifestyle, seniors are choosing to travel by airplane, bus, or cruise ship to faraway places.

"Alaska is a popular summer destination,"

Warnken says, "but it takes time to get there. We offer a flight followed by a seven-night cruise from Vancouver, which gives travellers time to see Alaska once they've arrived."

This northernmost state is a popular summer destination. But many seniors are snowbirds, preferring to escape to southern climes, especially when a chill begins to fill the air. Traditional hotspots are Orlando, Tampa, and Miami, in Florida, and Phoenix, Ariz.

Carol Marovich, owner of Gem Tours Inc., in Grayslake, says the vibrant fall colors of the New England hills, also attract senior travellers. Destination Nova Scotia is a popular late summer tour when the climate in the east is at its best.

"Fully-escorted bus tours or cruises which cater to the travellers every need are how many seniors choose to travel," Warnken says.

"Traveling with a packaged tour means eliminating most of the hassles of planning a trip yourself. All you need to do is choose your destination and pack your things."

Maurine Calzavara, a frequent traveller from Waukegan, explains: "I travel at least half a dozen times a year. I can find a tour to take me just about anywhere I would want to go. I enjoy tours because we are always kept busy. And the hotels and meals are very good. You don't have to worry about going alone, it's easy to make good friends."

With seniors on the move today more than ever before, tour companies meet the challenge of attracting repeat travelers by frequently redesigning their tours. At one time, Gem Tours may arrange to have the travelers stay at kitchenette suites for up to a week in the Orlando area, with the tour bus available for one day outings to nearby attractions. Another time, travelers may spend just a night or two in an Orlando hotel before continuing on to another destination.

"We're flexible," Marovich explains, "and we try to offer different trips as often as we can. Those seniors who do travel, travel often, and we meet their needs by offering exciting, new tours."

Local, one-day trips to special events are also available. The dog races in Dubuque, Iowa, are popular. This trip may even stop off the Galena enroute to tour Grant's home. State fairs, concerts, festivals, baseball games in Chicago...you can probably get there aboard a luxury tour bus.

If you just can't decide where you would like to travel, Gem Tours has just the answer. Climb aboard a bus for a three-day mystery tour to a secret destination! Just pack your bag. Gem Tours will look after the rest.

When planning a trip, be sure to ask for help from a travel agent. For no extra charge, all plans can be taken care of by a professional. Many times an agent will be familiar with the destination and able to tell about the highlights of the area. Discounts are usually available to senior citizens, so remember to inquire.

Editor's Note: The author is a free-lance writer, who has written for Canadian publications and, now, this one in America. She is a resident of Grayslake who is rapidly becoming acquainted with the American way of life.

Pavletic named head of juvenile division

Assistant State's Atty. Jeff Pavletic has been appointed supervisor of the juvenile trial division and children's advocacy center. Pavletic fills a vacancy left by the resignation of Margaret Mullen.

"I am pleased to appoint Jeff to this position. Jeff is a highly regarded felony prosecutor who takes a sincere interest in children's issues. He will spearhead our prosecution of juvenile gang offenders and sexual abuse cases," said Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman.

Pavletic will work with Victoria Rossetti, chief of the misdemeanor/domestic violence division and past supervisor of the juvenile division.

Pavletic, a 1983 graduate of the John Marshall Law School, has worked in the state's attorney's office since graduating. He was also a graduate of the state's attorney's intern program and the career prosecutor course through the National College of District Attorneys.

Pavletic will work with the judiciary in the reorganization of the court services department.

"I am particularly concerned about holding juveniles and truants accountable for their misconduct. I am also concerned about a growing juvenile gang problem in Lake County as a result of drug use by juveniles," Pavletic said.

"It is time to re-examine the juvenile intake process. I have asked all area police departments to refer all juvenile complaints dealing with felonies and weapons immediately to our juvenile division.

Pavletic, a 1983 graduate of the John Marshall Law School, has worked in the state's attorney's office since

Number of unsafe beaches typical; not many close

by RANDI OSTRO

A typical number of beaches were closed this year due to too-high bacteria levels near beaches in Lake County.

The Lake County Health Department tests water samples every two weeks and mandates closure of beaches that test unsatisfactory two consecutive times for usually a day or two.

Lake Michigan beaches at the Lake Bluff Park District, Moraine Park and Waukegan South were closed in July. Island Lake's South Shore Beach and Lake Linden's Landing were also closed.

The bacteria, found in the intestines of warm-blooded animals, affects children and older adults. It often resembles the flu, but "it depends on the individual state of health," said Steve Moyan, aquatic biologist for the Lake County Health Department Division of Environmental Health.

Rainfall washing storm water into the lake, unmaintained sewer systems and septic tanks, and congregating wild foul increase the bacteria count.

The testing, of some 170 beaches on Lake Michigan and independent lakes, usually finds one inland beach per month and one Lake Michigan beach per weekend unsafe, according to Moyan.

He said that the wild foul probably accounts for the high counts during the drought.

Texan wins national championship in Fox Lake

DENISE MCCUE
This event is the best sanctioned I've ever attended," said veteran swimmer Ivy Brown from Reno, Nevada, who notes her age as 73 and years. She was making of Saturday's third annual Fox Lake Challenge Four-Mile
swim.

The event, sanctioned
by the Masters Swimmers Assn. and the United States Swimming Assn. (formerly the

Amateur Athletic Union), posed a four-mile, open-water
challenge to swimmers from eleven states. The swimmers ages ranged from 10 to 73 years.

Chuck Wiley, 23, from Austin, Texas, won the race with a course record of one hour, 21 minutes, breaking the old record
by two minutes.

Wiley has been swimming since he was three years old, and he trained with his brother,

a professional marathon swimmer. The Texan swam in high school and college at Arizona State.
He plans to continue competitive swimming during his fellowship at the Univ. of Texas-Austin in electrical engineering.

The only trouble he had during the race was his "hand brushing the bottom of the lake in the shallow parts," he said.

This was his first competitive open-water swim, though he had previously won a 5-k pool
competition in California.
His goal is to go to the World Championships and qualify for the 1992 Olympic Games in Austria as a long-distance swimmer.

The first woman to come in was Martha Jahn (25 years old) of Palos Heights. She beat the women's record by five minutes, coming in as the fourth swimmer
overall.

The first thing she said was, "I can't wait to take a shower!"

Jahn, who won the Chicago Lake Swim just a few weeks ago, said she doesn't normally think about anything but her breathing and her strokes while she's swimming.

Contrast her style with Harlan Drake (60 years old) of Wauwatosa, Wisc., who placed first in his age group and sang
"Mares eat oats and does eat oats..." the whole way.

The organizers of the swim meet, Linda and David Usrey could not speak more highly of the community support for this project.

"Without the Fox Lake Harbor, Pier Inn, Korppan's Landing and Carmen's Veranda, we couldn't have done it. It just can't be done without them, and we've gotten exceptional support from the community," David Usrey said. "They get us set up financially, and it just can't be done without them. The police are just unbelievable, the way they protect us," he added.

Indeed, upon being challenged by police boats and advised of the
"no wake" route, many boaters turned back,
according to Tom Carl,
who was lending a voluntary hand.

Ivy Brown, the 73-year-old Nevadan and competitor in seven open-water challenges a year, proclaimed this "the best event I've EVER attended," and organizers are hoping to attract even more swimmers

and spectators next year.

The route led from Korpans Landing under the Rte. 12 bridge, across Pistakee Lake to the Fox River, and ended at the Chapel Hill Rd. bridge.

The champ

Chuck Wiley, 23, Austin, Texas, emerges from the water an hour and 21 minutes after he started swimming Saturday to capture the Masters Swimmers middle distance national championship in the third annual Fox Lake Challenge four-mile swim.

Raffle winners picked; bowling info dispensed

by ANNA WIENKE
(312)587-7516

First of all, I would like to say thanks to the members of the Fox Lake Community Center for braving the terrible heat on Friday, Aug. 12, to attend the picnic at Veteran's Park. Those there enjoyed themselves, the food was good, and we enjoyed visiting with each other.

On Tuesday, Aug. 16, 100 people had lunch at the community center. It was the day, also, for the drawing of the winners of our raffle books that we were selling the past few months. The lucky winners were: the grill by Dr. Robert Epstein; touch and glow lamp by Kathy Cryzan; and Afghan by Laverne Jenkins. Congratulations to these lucky people. Thanks for supporting another one of our programs.

June Zavory gave me the following news: the Fox Lake Women's Club will meet at the Moose Lodge on Thursday, Sept. 1, at noon. Members will please bring a brown bag lunch. Coffee will be provided. Sue Kozlowski will talk about the Chain of Lakes Park Dist. For more information, call (312)587-8403.

Now, a little information on the Monday afternoon senior citizen bowling league sponsored by the Chain O' Lakes AARP. We will be starting our league up again for the next bowling season. We will be bowling at Kristoff's on Rollins Rd. in Round Lake Beach, starting on Monday, Sept. 12, at 1 p.m. We are asking our bowlers who bowled with us last year to come and join us again. Also, we are looking for anyone who is interested in joining. It is a mixed league, and we would like to get started at this time.

If you want to come to the Kristoff Bowling Alleys on Sept. 12 and join us, call me at (312)587-7516 or Ed Bielski at (312)587-1059 for more information.

Now, I have some exciting news to tell you. The Fox Lake Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring an auction on Sunday, Sept. 25, at Fox Lake Fire Station 2 on Washington St. starting at 1 p.m. This auction is being held to raise money for the community center maintenance fund, the chamber of commerce, and the fire department will have the food concession.

I talked to Jim Cermak this morning and he said this is an affair to help the whole community. We are asking for the support of each and every one to make this event a big success. It will be the first attempt of its kind here.

We are asking for new and clean, usable items to auction off. Articles are beginning to come in.

They will also be looking for home-baked goodies to raffle off.

The Share Food delivery date is Aug. 27 at the community center from 8 a.m. until 10:30 a.m.

We do need the help of a few more men when the truck arrives, as the truck does have to be unloaded before we can get the units ready for people to pick them up.

The lunches for Aug. 30 will be baked cod, par-sley potatoes, coleslaw, green beans and cookies.

The Fox Lake News

They have just received a used car. Jimmy Sipolt is donating a black Labrador puppy and an electric screwdriver. If you have anything you would like to donate, you can contact the chamber at (312)587-7474 or the community center at (312)587-3335. The community center is open only on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 8 a.m. until 3 p.m.

They will also be looking for home-baked

school office at (815)675-2342.

Following the presentation will be an one-hour PTO meeting. Committees will be formed for the coming year. Goals, fundraisers, special programs and the budget will be discussed. Refreshments will be served.

Future meetings are scheduled for Tuesdays, Nov. 15, Jan. 10 and March 7 and May 9 at 7:30 p.m. Officers this year are Chris Gallagher, president; Sarah Savage, vice president; Nancy Fallon, secretary; and Darlene Considine, treasurer.

FLOOR PLAN

By Landmark Designs

The Wilson 1 fits three bedrooms and a number of modern amenities into a traditional one-story cottage. The solution lies in combining the living room, kitchen and dining room in one contemporary "great room," leaving the rest of the floor plan for bed, bath and utility.

An island range/oven conserves counter space in the kitchen. In good weather, meals could also be served on the side deck, accessible through doors from the dining area. The living area of the great room features a fireplace with wood storage, and a large front window with a vaulted dormer above.

Bedrooms cluster around a short hall in back of the kitchen, sufficiently removed to offer privacy from the noise in the great room. The main bath is squeezed between the two smaller bedrooms, across the hall from the utility room. The utility is relatively large, with room for a washer, drier, sink, folding counter and built-in storage. It also provides deck access from the back part of the house.

There is a surprising amount of storage for a small house. The master suite has its own walk-in closet, the kitchen has a pantry, and there are closets in the hall and entry. And if that's not enough, there's a basement, and a steeped roof attic that almost cries out for finishing. The stairs are through the service door just right of the entry. We even drew in a custom window above the garage so you can see your way around.

For a study plan of the Wilson 1 (228-L21), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2832, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.
